19 YOLANDA VELASCO, on behalf of herself

21 Case No.: _____

22 Plaintiff,

23
24 NOTICE OF REMOVAL

25 vs.

26 RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC,
27 a limited liability company; WAL-MART
28 ASSOCIATES, INC., a corporation; WAL-
MART, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1
to 100, inclusive,

29 Defendants.

1 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendants Wal-Mart Associates, Inc. and Wal-
 2 Mart Stores, Inc. hereby remove Alameda County Superior Court Case
 3 No. RG18902612 to this Court. This removal is made under the Class Action Fairness
 4 Act. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441, 1446 and 1453.

5 I. BACKGROUND

6 1. On April 20, 2018, Plaintiff Yolanda Velasco filed a wage and hour class
 7 action complaint in Alameda County Superior Court against Wal-Mart Associates, Inc.
 8 and Wal-Mart, Inc. (collectively, “Walmart”), Randstad Inhouse Associates, LLC, and 9 Does 1 to 100 (collectively, “Defendants”). Plaintiff served Walmart with the 10 Complaint on May 8, 2018.

11 2. The defendants designated as Does 1 to 100 are fictitious defendants, are 12 not parties to the action, have not been served, and are properly disregarded for 13 purpose of this removal. 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a); McCabe v. Gen. Foods Corp., 811 F. 2d
 14 1136, 1139 (9th Cir. 1987).

15 II. REQUIREMENTS FOR REMOVAL

16 3. The Complaint, along with all other process, pleadings, and orders served 17 on Walmart are attached hereto in accordance with 28 U.S.C section 1446(a):

Exhibit	Document
Exhibit 1	Civil Case Cover Sheet
Exhibit 2	Summons
Exhibit 3	Complaint
Exhibit 4	Service of Process Transmittal
Exhibit 5	Plaintiff Yolanda Velasco’s Notice of Filing Proof of Service of Summons and Complaint on Defendant Randstad Inhouse Services, LLC
Exhibit 6	Notice of Assignment of Judge for All Purposes
Exhibit 7	Notice of Case Management Conference and Order

4

4. As required by 28 U.S.C. section 1446(d), copies of this Notice of Removal
5 will be served on Plaintiff's counsel and filed with the clerk of the Alameda County
6 Superior Court.

7

5. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) requires removal within thirty days of defendant's 6 receipt of a "pleading, motion, order or other paper from which it may first be 7 ascertained that the case is one which is or has become removable." But if a 8 defendant has not received a pleading that, on its face, would make the case
9 removable—as is the case here—a defendant may remove at any point after it
10 "discovers, based on its own investigation, that a case is removable." Roth v. CHA
11 Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P., 720 F. 3d 1121, 1123 (9th Cir. 2013). Thus, this removal is 12 timely.

13

14 III. VENUE

15

6. Alameda County Superior Court is located within the Northern District
7 of California. 28 U.S.C. § 84(a). Thus, venue is proper in the Northern District of 8 California. See 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

16

17 IV. GROUNDS FOR REMOVAL

18

7. The Class Action Fairness Act ("CAFA") gives federal district courts
8 original jurisdiction over class actions in which (1) the number of putative class 9 members exceeds 100, (2) the amount in controversy exceeds $5 million, and (3) where 10 any proposed class member and any defendant are citizens of different states.
11 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d). Accepting Plaintiff's allegations as true for purposes of the 12 removal, this class action plainly satisfies each of the requirements for CAFA 13 jurisdiction.

14

15 A. There are more than 100 putative class members.

16

8. Plaintiff's putative class includes (i) the Meal Period Class, (ii) the Wage
9 Statement Class, and (iii) the Waiting Time Class. Compl. ¶ 26(A)-(C). Plaintiff

1 alleges that the “classes are so numerous” and that “each class has over 100
 2 members.” Compl. § 28(A).

3 B. There is minimal diversity.

4 9. Plaintiff is a resident of California. Compl. ¶ 3. Thus, CAFA’s minimal 5 diversity requirement is satisfied if any defendant is a citizen of a state other than 6 California. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A).

7 10. A corporation is deemed to be a citizen where it is incorporated and 8 where it has its principal place of business, as determined by the “nerve center” test.
 9 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1); Hertz Corp. v. Friend, 559 U.S. 77, 92-93 (2010). The nerve 10 center is “normally [] the place where a corporation’s officers direct, control and 11 coordinate the corporation’s activities.” Id. at 93.

12 11. Neither Walmart defendant is a citizen of California: Wal-Mart
 13 Associates, Inc. and Wal-Mart, Inc. were incorporated in Delaware and maintain their 14 corporate headquarters in Arkansas. See, e.g., Smith v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 2018
 15 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14937, at *4 (C.D. Cal., Jan. 30, 2018); Cesena v. Wal-Mart Assocs.,
 16 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 75468, at *4 (C.D. Cal., June 8, 2016). Because the Walmart
 17 defendants are citizens of Delaware and Arkansas, not California, CAFA’s minimal 18 diversity requirement is met. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1), (d)(2)(A).

19 C. The amount in controversy exceeds $5 million.

20 12. “The amount in controversy is simply an estimate of the total amount in 21 dispute, not a prospective assessment of defendant’s liability.” Lewis v. Verizon
 22 Communications, Inc., 627 F. 3d 395, 400 (9th Cir. 2010). And a notice of removal 23 “need not contain evidentiary submissions,” but merely a “plausible allegation that the 24 amount in controversy exceeds the jurisdictional threshold.” Dart Cherokee Basin
 25 Operating Co., LLC v. Owens, 135 S. Ct. 457, 551, 554 (2014); see also 28 U.S.C.
 26 § 1446(a) (notice of removal need only contain a “short and plain statement of the 27 grounds for removal”).

1 13. The Complaint does not demand a specific amount in controversy, but
 2 Plaintiff's allegations show that the amount-in-controversy easily exceeds $5 million.

3 14. Meal Period Class. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants "failed to provide 4 for [a] legally compliant second . . . meal period when non-exempt, hourly employees 5 worked between 5 and 10 hours in a day." Compl. ¶ 21. She contends that her and 6 other allegedly aggrieved employees comprise the Meal Period Class.

7 Compl. ¶¶ 26(A), 29-35. The Complaint contends that Defendants violated Labor
 8 Code sections 226.7 and 512 and the relevant IWC Wage Orders by failing to provide 9 its employees "with an uninterrupted meal period of no less than 30-minutes before 10 the end of a 5-hour work period." Compl. ¶ 31. She also asserts that "Plaintiff and 11 members of the Meal Period Class would work on workdays in shifts between 5 and 12 more than 10 hours in length" but that Defendants did not provide a "legally 13 compliant second uninterrupted, duty-free 30-minute meal period[.]" Compl. ¶ 32.

14 15. Based on these allegations, the Complaint contends that Plaintiff and the 15 Meal Period Class are entitled to recover a meal period premium (one additional hour 16 of pay) under Labor Code section 226.7 for each meal period that Defendants allegedly 17 failed to provide. Compl. ¶¶ 32, 35.

18 16. During the relevant time period, there were more than 140,000
 19 California Walmart employees who worked more than five hours. Thus, assuming 20 each putative class member earned at least the 2016 minimum wage of $10 per hour,
 21 and that each putative class member was deprived of merely one meal period,
 22 Plaintiff's meal period claim puts more than $1,400,000 in controversy. This estimate
 23 is exceedingly conservative because the average hourly rate exceeded $10 per hour, 24 and Plaintiff's Complaint suggests that class members were deprived of far more than 25 one meal period.

26 17. Wage Statement Class. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants "failed to 27 provide accurate and complete wage statements to Plaintiff and members of the Wage 28 Statement Class." Compl. ¶ 39.

1 18. Based on these allegations, the Complaint asserts that Plaintiff and the 2 class members “are entitled to recover fifty ($50) dollars for the initial pay period . . .
 3 violation . . . and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation of Labor Code section
 4 226 in a subsequent pay period[.]” Compl. ¶ 42.

5 19. As defined by Plaintiffs, the Wage Statement Class would encompass
 6 more than 75,000 Walmart employees. To calculate the amount in controversy for the 7 Wage Statement Class based on 75,000 employees within the putative class, Walmart
 8 makes the following conservative assumption for purposes of this removal: (i) that 9 each putative class member had one initial violation; and (ii) each putative class
 10 member had one subsequent violation (as Plaintiff defines those terms).

11 20. The initial violation penalty of $50 multiplied by the 75,000 eligible
 12 employees is $3,750,000 ($50 initial penalty x 75,000 employees). The subsequent 13 violation penalty of $100 multiplied by the 75,000 employees is $7,500,000 ($100 14 initial penalty x 75,000 employees). Thus, based on these conservative assumptions of 15 only one initial violation and one subsequent violation, Plaintiff’s wage statement 16 claim puts more than $11,250,000 in controversy.

17 21. Waiting Time Class. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants “terminated
 18 [her] from her position” and “failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly
 19 employees with all wages [due].” Compl. ¶¶ 24, 26(C), 45-54. The Complaint contends
 20 that employees who resigned were entitled, under Labor Code sections 201 and 202, 21 to “payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after 22 giving notice of resignation or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were 23 entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation at the time of 24 resignation.” Compl. ¶ 47.

25 22. Based on these allegations, the Complaint contends that Plaintiff and 26 members of the Waiting Time Class are entitled to Labor Code section 203 penalties, 27 i.e., a continuation of their wages, from the day their earned and unpaid wages were 28

1 due upon separation of employment until paid, up to a maximum of 30 days.

2 Compl. ¶ 51.

3 23. As defined by Plaintiffs, the Waiting Time Class consists of more than 4 60,000 former employees. To calculate the amount in controversy, Walmart makes the 5 following conservative assumptions for purposes of this removal: (i) each employee
6 who was terminated or resigned during the statutory period was not paid all wages
7 owed in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202; (ii) each employee worked 8 an average of 6 hours per day at the 2016 minimum wage of $10 per hour for a total of 9 $60 per day; and (3) each employee did not receive all of his or her earned wages until 10 10 days after they were due.

11 24. The 2016 minimum wage of $10 per hour multiplied by 6 hours per day
12 for 10 days results in damages of $600 per person in waiting time penalties ($10 13 minimum hourly wage x 6 hours x 10 days). $600 multiplied by 60,000 (the size of the 14 putative Waiting Time Class), places $36,000,000 in controversy ($600 per person x 15 60,000 former employees).

16 25. Altogether, these conservative assumptions for each of the three 17 subclasses place far more than $5,000,000 in controversy, even before taking account
18 the attorney fees that Plaintiff seeks to recover. (The Ninth Circuit utilizes a 19 benchmark rate of 25 percent of damages in reviewing requests for attorney fees. See 20 Paul Johnson, Alson & Hunt v. Graulty, 886 F. 2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989); Rodriguez
21 v. Cleansource, Inc, 2014 WL 3818304, at *4 (S.D. Cal., Aug. 4, 2014).)

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties In Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties In Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case. AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

3 RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC, a limited liability company; WAL-MART
4 ASSOCIATES, INC., a corporation; WAL-MART INC., corporation; and DOES 1 to 100,
5 inclusive, (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants") as follows:

INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class action lawsuit seeking unpaid wages and interest thereon for 8 Defendants' failure to provide legally compliant meal periods and/or pay meal period premium
9 wages; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; waiting time penalties in
10 the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employee all earned and unpaid wages due
11 upon separation of employment; applicable civil penalties; injunctive relief and other equitable 12 relief; and reasonable attorney's fees, pursuant to Labor Code Section 226(e); costs, pursuant to 13 Labor Code Section 218.5; and interest, pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.6, brought on behalf of 14 Plaintiff and others similarly situated.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 2. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff and the Class Members' claims for 17 Defendants' failure to provide legally compliant meal periods and/or pay meal period premium
18 wages; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; waiting time penalties in 19 the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employee all earned and unpaid wages due
20 upon separation of employment; and claims for injunctive relief and restitution under California
21 Business & Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. for the following reasons: Plaintiff's lawsuit
22 seeks permanent injunction and damages for herself and the Class Members in excess of $25,000;
23 more than two-thirds of the putative class members are California citizens; the principal violations
24 of California law occurred in California; Defendants employed putative class members in Alameda
25 County, including at 360 22nd Street, Suite 535, Oakland, California 94612, and 1919 Davis Street,
26 San Leandro, California 94577; the conduct of Defendants forms a significant basis for Plaintiff's
27 and the Class Members' claims; and Plaintiff and the Class Members seek significant relief from 28 Defendants.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and other members of the general public similarly-situated. The named Plaintiff and the class of persons on whose behalf this action is filed are current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who worked, work, or will work for Defendants as non-exempt hourly employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by Defendants in a non-exempt position within the 4 years prior to the filing of the complaint. The named Plaintiff is no longer an employee of Defendants.

9 4. Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly non-exempt employee from in or around 10 June 2016, until on or around August 26, 2017.

11 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant RANDSTAD
12 INHOUSE SERVICES LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing
13 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1 to 25 are, and at all times
14 relevant hereto were, members and/or managers of Defendant RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES
15 LLC who were acting on behalf of RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC in the establishment
16 of, or ratification, of, the aforementioned illegal payroll practices or policies. At all times mentioned
17 herein, Defendant RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC employed numerous hourly paid
18 employees in Alameda County.

19 6. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 20 1 through 12 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 21 Plaintiff that exert the general control of an “employer” or “principal” over relevant day-to-day
22 aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the employees of RANDSTAD INHOUSE
23 SERVICES LLC.

24 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 13
25 through 25 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff that exert the general control of an "employer" or 26 "principal" over relevant day-to-day aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the 27 employees of RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC. Each of the individual defendants is sued
28 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager,

1 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each Defendant and had operational control
 2 for Defendants.

3 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WAL-MART
 4 ASSOCIATES, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing
 5 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 26 to 50 are, and at all times
 6 relevant hereto were, members and/or managers of Defendant WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC.
 7 who were acting on behalf of WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC. in the establishment of, or 8 ratification, of, the aforementioned illegal payroll practices or policies. At all times mentioned
 9 herein, Defendant WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC. employed numerous hourly paid employees
 10 in Alameda County.

11 9. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES
 12 26 through 38 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown
 13 to Plaintiff that exert the general control of an "employer" or "principal" over relevant day-to-day
 14 aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the employees of WAL-MART
 15 ASSOCIATES, INC.

16 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 39
 17 through 50 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff that exert the general control of an "employer" or 18 "principal" over relevant day-to-day aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the 19 employees of WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC. Each of the individual defendants is sued
 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager,
 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each Defendant and had operational control
 22 for Defendants.

23 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WAL-MART
 24 INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the State of 25 California and/or that Defendants DOES 51 to 75 are, and at all times relevant hereto were,
 26 members and/or managers of Defendant WAL-MART INC. who were acting on behalf of WAL-
 27 MART INC. in the establishment of, or ratification, of, the aforementioned illegal payroll practices
 28 or policies. At all times mentioned herein, Defendant WAL-MART INC. employed numerous

1 hourly paid employees in Alameda County.

2 12. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES
 3 51 through 63 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown
 4 to Plaintiff that exert the general control of an "employer" or "principal" over relevant day-to-day
 5 aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the employees of WAL-MART INC.

6 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 64
 7 through 75 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff that exert the general control of an "employer" or 8 "principal" over relevant day-to-day aspects of the employment and workplaces behavior of the 9 employees of WAL-MART INC. Each of the individual defendants is sued individually and in his 10 or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, supervisor, independent
 11 contractor and/or employee of each Defendant and had operational control for Defendants.

12 14. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 to 100 and therefore 13 sues said Defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 14 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 15 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 16 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 17 complaint.

18 15. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that at all relevant times, each
 19 Defendant was an employer, was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, 20 controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or 21 predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of 22 the other defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all
 23 of the other defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged in this 24 complaint. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant acted 25 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, and that at all relevant times,
 26 each defendant knew or should have known about, authorized, ratified, adopted, approved,
 27 controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other defendants. As used in this complaint, 28 "Defendants" means "Defendants and each of them," and refers to the Defendants named in the

1 particular cause of action in which the word appears and includes Defendants RANDSTAD
 2 INHOUSE SERVICES LLC, WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC., WAL-MART INC., and DOES 1
 3 to 100.

4 16. At all times mentioned herein, each Defendant was the co-conspirator, agent, servant,
 5 employee, and/or joint venturer of each of the other defendants and was acting within the course and 6 scope of said conspiracy, agency, employment, and/or joint venture and with the permission and 7 consent of each of the other Defendants.

8 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that there exists such a unity of 9 interest and ownership between Defendants RANDSTAD INHOUSE SERVICES LLC, WAL-
 10 MART ASSOCIATES, INC., WAL-MART INC., and DOES 1 to 100, that the individuality and 11 separateness of Defendants have ceased to exist. The business affairs of Defendants are, and at all 12 times relevant hereto were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be 13 segregated, and the same are in inextricable confusion. Defendants RANDSTAD INHOUSE
 14 SERVICES LLC, WAL-MART ASSOCIATES, INC. and WAL-MART INC. are and at all times
 15 relevant hereto were, used by Defendants DOES 1 to 100, as a mere shell and conduit for the 16 conduct of Defendants DOES 1 to 100's affairs and was undercapitalized during such use. The 17 recognition of the separate existence of Defendants would not promote justice, in that it would 18 permit Defendants to insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff. Accordingly, Defendants 19 constitute the alter ego of each other and the fiction of their separate existence must be disregarded.

20 18. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any 21 particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff
 22 reserves all of Plaintiff's rights to plead in the alternative.

23 DESCRIPTION OF ILLEGAL PAY PRACTICES

24 19. Pursuant to the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order ("Wage
 25 Order"), codified at California Code of Regulations title 8, Section 11040, Defendants and business
 26 entities sued as DOES 1-100 were employers of Plaintiff within the meaning of the applicable Wage
 27 Order and applicable California Labor Code Sections. Therefore, Defendants are jointly and 28 severally liable for the wrongs complained of herein in violation of the Wage Order and the

1 California Labor Code.

2 20. Failure to provide non-exempt employees with legally compliant meal periods
 3 and/or pay non-exempt employees wages to compensate them for workdays Defendants failed
 4 to provide legally compliant meal periods: Defendants often employ non-exempt employees,
 5 including the named Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated, for shifts of 10 hours or more in 6 length. California law requires an employer to provide an employee an uninterrupted meal period of 7 no less than 30-minutes before the end of a 5-hour work period. Lab. Code § 512. An employer
 8 may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the 9 employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes before the end of the tenth hour of 10 work. Id. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the 11 employer must pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for 12 each work day that a legally required meal period was not provided or was not duty free. Id.

13 21. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees would work on workdays in shifts of 14 between 5 hours and more than 10 hours in length entitling them to two meal periods under 15 California law. Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure, however, that failed to 16 provide for legally compliant second uninterrupted, duty-free 30-minute meal periods when non-
 17 exempt, hourly employees worked between 5 and 10 or more hours in a day, throughout the class
 18 period. Defendants also failed to provide the employees with premium wages for these non-
 19 compliant meal periods. Defendants' failure to provide the employees with legally compliant meal
 20 periods was in violation of Labor Code Section 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders. Accordingly,
 21 Defendants owe each hourly employee wages for these non-compliant meal periods.

22 22. Pay Stub Violations: California Labor Code Section 226(a) provides (inter alia)
 23 that, upon paying an employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her
 24 employees ... an itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
 25 worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary
 26 and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable
 27 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 28 applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that

1 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item,
 2 (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7)
 3 the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the 4 legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
 5 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

6 23. Defendants failed to provide accurate and complete wage statements to Plaintiff and
 7 other non-exempt, hourly employees. Defendants’ failure to provide legally compliant meal periods
 8 and/or pay meal period premium wages resulted in Defendants providing their non-exempt, hourly
 9 employees with inaccurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code Section 226(a)
 10 because they did not reflect all of the employees’ earnings. This intentional inaccurate information 11 prevented Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly employees from knowing the actual wages and 12 calculating their actual wages which resulted in Plaintiff and other hourly class members to suffer 13 actual damages.

14 24. Failure to Pay California Employees All Wages Due at Time of 15 Termination/Resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an 16 employee’s employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Lab. Code § 201)
 17 or within 72 hours of resignation (Lab. Code § 202). Plaintiff was terminated from her position
 18 with Defendants on or about August 26, 2017. Defendants, however, failed to pay Plaintiff and other 19 non-exempt, hourly employees with all wages, including any premium pay for any and all
 20 missed meal periods during their employment and never paid these amounts after Plaintiff and other
 21 non-exempt, hourly employees separated employment with Defendants. As a result, Defendants 22 failed to provide all separated employees whose employment ended within three years prior to the 23 filing of the Complaint all earned and unpaid wages.

24 CLASS DEFINITIONS AND CLASS ALLEGATIONS

25 25. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
 26 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 and other applicable law, because there 27 is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed classes are ascertainable.

28 26. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself, on behalf of all others similarly

1 situated, and on behalf of the General Public, and as a member of a Class defined as follows:

2 A. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt, hourly employees
3 employed by Defendants in California at any time within the four years prior to the filing of the 4 initial complaint in this action and through the date notice is mailed to a certified class who worked
5 at least 5 hours in a workday and did not receive wages to compensate them for non-compliant
6 second meal periods.

7 B. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt, hourly employees
8 employed by Defendants in California at any time within four years prior to the filing of 9 the initial complaint in this action and through the date notice is mailed to a certified class who 10 received inaccurate and/or incomplete itemized wage statements.

11 C. Waiting Time Class: All current and former non-exempt, hourly employees
12 employed by Defendants in California at any time within four years prior to the filing of the initial 13 complaint in this action and through the date notice is mailed to a certified class whose employment 14 ended and they did not receive payment of all unpaid wages within the statutory time period after 15 separation of employment.

16 D. California Class: All aforementioned classes are here collectively referred to 17 as the "California Class."

18 27. All Classes are here collectively referred to as "California Class".

19 28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the classes are 20 ascertainable:

21 A. Numerosity: The Plaintiff classes are so numerous that the individual joinder
22 of all members is impractical under the circumstances of this case. While the exact number of class
23 members in each class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes and 24 thereon allege that, in California, each class has over 100 members.

25 B. Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and fact exist
26 as to all members of the Plaintiff classes and predominates over any questions that affect only 27 individual members of each class. The common questions of law and fact include, but are not 28 limited to:

16 C. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class members
17 in each of the classes. Plaintiff and the members of the Meal Period Classes sustained damages
18 arising out of Defendants' failure to provide legally compliant meal periods and/or meal period
19 premium wages. Plaintiff and the members of the Wage Statement Class sustained damages arising 20 out of Defendants' failure to furnish them with proper Itemized Wage Statements. Plaintiff and the 21 members of the Waiting Time and Class sustained damages arising out of Defendants' failure to 22 provide all wages due upon the end of their employment.

E. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available means for the fair

1 and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Because individual joinder of all members of each
2 class is impractical, class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to 3 prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without the 4 unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender.
5 The expenses and burdens of individual litigation would make it difficult or impossible for 6 individual members of each class to redress the wrongs done to them, while important public
7 interests will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. The cost to and burden on the 8 court system of adjudication of individualized litigation would be substantial, and substantially
9 more than the costs and burdens of a class action. Individualized litigation would also present the 10 potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments.

11 F. Public Policy Consideration: Employers throughout the state violate wage
12 and hour laws. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or 13 indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because they perceive their 14 former employers can blacklist them in their future endeavors through negative references and by 15 other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the Complaint with a 16 type of anonymity that allows for vindication of their rights.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS AND MEAL PERIOD PREMIUM WAGES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 226.7 & 512 AND THE WAGE ORDERS

(On Behalf of the Meal Period Class against All Defendants and Does 1-100)

21 29. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-28 above, as if fully set
22 herein.

23 30. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class were non-24 exempt, hourly employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code Sections 226.7 & 512 and the 25 IWC Wage Orders.

31. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 & 512 and the IWC Wage Orders, an employer is required to provide an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than 30-minutes before the end of a 5-hour work period. Lab. Code § 512. An employer may not employ an

1 employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a
 2 second meal period of not less than 30 minutes before the end of the tenth hour of work. Id. If an 3 employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must
 4 pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day
 5 that a legally required meal period was not provided or was not duty free. Id.

6 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Plaintiff and members of 7 the Meal Period Class would work on workdays in shifts of between 5 hours and more than 10 hours
 8 in length entitling them to two meal periods under California law. Defendants maintained a policy,
 9 practice, and/or procedure, however, that failed to provide for legally compliant second 10 uninterrupted, duty-free 30-minute meal periods when non-exempt, hourly employees worked 11 between 5 and 10 or more hours in a day, throughout the class period. Defendants also failed to 12 provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with premium wages for these for these 13 non-compliant meal periods.

14 33. Despite that California law requires employers to provide employees with timely and 15 uninterrupted meal periods when they have worked a sufficient amount of hours, Plaintiff is 16 informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and members of 17 the Meal Period Class with legally compliant second meal periods.

18 34. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and members of the Meal
 19 Period Class have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid 20 an hour wage for every meal period which they did not properly receive.

21 35. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff and members of the Meal
 22 Period Class are entitled to recover the full amount of unpaid meal period wages, interest thereon, 23 and costs of suit.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WAGE STATEMENTS IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTION 226 AND THE WAGE ORDERS

(On Behalf of the Wage Statement Class against All Defendants and Does 1-100)

36. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-35 above, as if fully set herein by reference.

37. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class were employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code Section 226 and the IWC Wage Orders.

9 38. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 226, subdivision (a), and IWC Wage Orders,
10 Plaintiff and the other members of the Wage Statement Class were entitled to receive, semimonthly 11 or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized wage statement which included, but 12 not limited to, the following: (a) gross wages earned; (b) the total hours worked by the employee; (c)
13 net wages earned; (d) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 14 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee; and (e) the name and 15 address of the legal entity that is the employer.

16 39. Defendants failed to provide accurate and complete wage statements to Plaintiff and 17 members of the Wage Statement Class. Defendants' failure to provide legally compliant meal
18 periods and/or pay meal period premium wages resulted in Defendants providing their non-exempt,
19 hourly employees with inaccurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code Section
20 226(a) because they did not reflect all of the employees' earnings. This intentional inaccurate
21 information prevented Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class from knowing the actual 22 wages and calculating their actual wages which resulted in Plaintiff and members of the Wage
23 Statement Class to suffer actual damages.

24 40. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class
25 with accurate wage statements was knowing and intentional. Defendants had the ability to provide 26 Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate wage statements but intentionally
27 provided wage statements that Defendants knew were not accurate.

41. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement

1 Class have suffered injury. The absence of accurate information on their wage statements has 2 prevented earlier challenges to Defendants unlawful pay practices, required discovery and
 3 mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, caused difficulty and expense
 4 in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or led to the submission of inaccurate
 5 information about wages and amounts deducted from wages to state and federal government 6 agencies.

7 42. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 226(e), Plaintiff and members of the Wage
 8 Statement Class are entitled to recover fifty (50) dollars for the initial pay period within the 9 applicable limitations period in which a violation of Labor Code Section 226 occurred and one 10 hundred dollars for each violation of Labor Code Section 226 in a subsequent pay period, not to 11 exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand (4,000) dollars per employee.

12 43. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 226, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement
 13 Class are entitled to recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code Section 226(e) and 14 reasonable attorney's fees.

15 44. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 218 and 226(e), Plaintiff and members of the Wage
 16 Statement Class are entitled to recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code Section 17 226(e), reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

18 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE
 20 SECTIONS 201 & 202

21 (On Behalf of the Waiting Class against All Defendants and Does 1-100)

22 45. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-44 above, as if fully set
 23 herein.

24 46. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class were 25 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code Sections 201 or 202.

26 47. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201 or 202, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting
 27 Time Class were entitled upon separation of employment to timely payment of all wages earned and 28 unpaid prior to separation of employment. Discharged employees were entitled to payment of all

1 wages earned and unpaid prior to discharge immediately upon termination. Employees who
 2 resigned were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72
 3 hours after giving notice of resignation or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were entitled 4 to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation at the time of resignation.

5 48. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all wages
 6 earned and unpaid prior to separation in accordance with Labor Code Sections 201 and/or 202.
 7 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times within the limitations
 8 period applicable to this cause of action, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay
 9 premium wages for all non-compliant meal periods.

10 49. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all
 11 wages earned prior to separation timely in accordance with Labor Code Sections 201 and/or 202
 12 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff and members of the 13 Waiting Time Class prior to separation in accordance with Labor Code Sections 201 and/or 202, but 14 intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code
 15 Sections 201 and/or 202. When Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
 16 Class timely upon separation all wages earned prior to separation, Defendants knew what they were 17 doing and intended to do what they did.

18 50. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201 or 202, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting
 19 Time Class are entitled to all wages earned prior to separation of employment that Defendants did 20 not pay them.

21 51. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 203, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
 22 Class are entitled to continuation of their wages, from the day their earned and unpaid wages were 23 due upon separation of employment until paid, up to a maximum of 30 days.

24 52. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class
 25 have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid for all wages
 26 earned prior to separation of employment.

27 53. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class
 28 have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid all

1 continuation wages owed under Labor Code Section 203.

2 54. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203, Plaintiff and members of the 3 Waiting Time Class are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid wages, continuation
4 wages under Section 203, interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION IN VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE

SECTION 17200, et seq.

8 (On Behalf of the California Class against All Defendants and Does 1-100)

9 55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-54 above, as if fully set
10 herein by reference.

11 56. The unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition
12 within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200. This unfair conduct
13 includes Defendants' use of policies and procedures which resulted in their failure to provide legally
14 compliant meal periods and/or pay meal period premium wages and to provide accurate itemized
15 wage statements.

16 57. Due to their unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the California
17 Labor Code, as outline above, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other
18 comparable companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations 19 to provide legally compliant meal periods and/or pay meal period premium wages and to provide 20 accurate itemized wage statements.

21 58. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiff and 22 members of the Meal Period Class, Wage Statement Class, and/or Waiting Time Class have 23 suffered injury in fact and lost money or property, as described in more detail above.

24 59. Pursuant to California Business and Professions Code Section 17203, Plaintiff and 25 members of the Meal Period Class, Wage Statement Class, and/or Waiting Time Class are entitled 26 to restitution of all wages and other monies rightfully belonging to them that Defendants failed to 27 pay and wrongfully retained by means of their unlawful and unfair business practices.

28 60. Plaintiff also seeks an injunction against Defendants on behalf of members of the

1 California Class enjoining them, and any and all persons acting in concert with them, from engaging 2 in each of the unlawful practices, policies and patterns set forth herein.

3 61. Plaintiff and members of the California Class also seeks attorneys' fees and costs of 4 suit, including but not limited to that recoverable under California Code of Civil Procedure Section 5 1021.5.

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 ON ALL CAUSES OF ACTION:

8 1. That the Court determine that this action may be maintained as a class action (for the 9 entire California Class and/or any and all of the specified sub-classes) pursuant to Code of Civil 10 Procedure Section 382 and any other applicable law;

11 2. That the named Plaintiff be designated as class representative for the California Class
12 (and all sub-classes thereof);

13 3. A declaratory judgment that the practices complained herein are unlawful;

14 4. An injunction against Defendants enjoining them, and any and all persons acting in 15 concert with them, from engaging in each of the unlawful practices, policies and patterns set forth
16 herein; and

17 5. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to that recoverable
18 under Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5.

19 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

20 1. That the Defendants be found to have violated the meal period provisions of the 21 Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to Plaintiff and the Meal Period Class;

22 2. For damages, according to proof, including unpaid wages;

23 3. For any and all legally applicable penalties;

24 4. For pre-judgment interest, including but not limited to that recoverable under Labor
25 Code Section 218.6, and post-judgment interest; and

26 5. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 27 appropriate.

28 //

ON THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That the Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code regarding proper itemized paystubs as to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Class;
2. For damages and/or penalties, according to proof, including damages and/or statutory penalties under Labor Code Section 226(e) and any other legally applicable damages or penalties;
3. For pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest;
4. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to that recoverable under California Labor Code Section 226(e); and
5. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or appropriate.

ON THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

12 1. That the Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code
13 regarding payment of wages due upon resignation or termination as to Plaintiff and the Waiting
14 Time Class;

15 2. For damages and/or penalties, according to proof, including damages and/or statutory 16 penalties under Labor Code Section 203 and any other legally applicable damages or penalties;

17 3. For pre-judgment interest, including under Labor Code Section 218.6, and post-18 judgment interest; and

19 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 20 appropriate.

ON THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

22 1. That the Defendants be found to have violated Business and Professions Code
23 Section 17200 for the conduct alleged herein as to Plaintiff and all Classes;
24 2. A declaratory judgment that the practices complained herein are unlawful;
25 3. An injunction against Defendants enjoining them, and any and all persons acting in 26 concert with them, from engaging in each of the unlawful practices, policies and patterns set forth
27 herein;
28 4. For restitution to the full extent permitted by law; and

1 5. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or
2 appropriate.

I placed such envelope, with postage thereon prepaid, in the United States mail at Los Angeles, California.

I am "readily familiar" with the firm's practice of collecting and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice, it would be deposited with the U.S. Postal Service on that same day, with postage thereon fully prepaid, at Los Angeles, California, in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that, on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if the postal cancellation or postage meter date is more than one day after the date of deposit for mailing in this affidavit.

(BY ELECTRONIC MAIL) I sent such document via facsimile mail to the number(s) noted above.

(BY PERSONAL SERVICE) I caused such envelope to be delivered by hand to the attorney at the offices of the addressee.

(STATE) I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the above is true and correct. Executed on May 16, 2018 at Beverly Hills, California.

Superior Court of California, County of Alameda

Notice of Assignment of Judge for All Purposes

Case Number: RG18902612
Case Title: Velasco VS Randstad Inhouse Services, LLC, a limited liability
Date of Filing: 04/18/2018

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

Pursuant to Rule 3.734 of the California Rules of Court and Title 3 Chapter 2 of the Local Rules of the Superior Court of California, County of Alameda, this action is hereby assigned by the Presiding Judge for all purposes to:

Judge:	Jo-Lynne Q. Lee
Department:	18
Address:	Administration Building 1221 Oak Street Oakland CA 94612
Phone Number:	(510) 267-6934
Fax Number:	(510) 267-1506
Email Address:	Dept.18@alameda.courts.ca.gov

Under direct calendaring, this case is assigned to a single judge for all purposes including trial.

Please note: In this case, any challenge pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 170.6 must be exercised within the time period provided by law. (See Code Civ. Proc. §§ 170.6, subd. (a)(2) and 1013.)

NOTICE OF NONAVAILABILITY OF COURT REPORTERS: Effective June 4, 2012, the court will not provide a court reporter for civil law and motion hearings, any other hearing or trial in civil departments, or any afternoon hearing in Department 201 (probate). Parties may arrange and pay for the attendance of a certified shorthand reporter. In limited jurisdiction cases, parties may request electronic recording.

Amended Local Rule 3.95 states: "Except as otherwise required by law, in general civil case and probate departments, the services of an official court reporter are not normally available. For civil trials, each party must serve and file a statement before the trial date indicating whether the party requests the presence of an official court reporter."

IT IS THE DUTY OF EACH PLAINTIFF AND CROSS COMPLAINANT TO SERVE A COPY OF THIS NOTICE IN ACCORDANCE WITH LOCAL RULES.

General Procedures

Following assignment of a civil case to a specific department, all pleadings, papers, forms, documents and writings can be submitted for filing at either Civil Clerk's Office, located at the René C. Davidson Courthouse, Room 109, 1225 Fallon Street, Oakland, California, 94612, and the Hayward Hall of Justice, 24405 Amador Street, Hayward, California, 94544. All documents, with the exception of the original summons and the original civil complaint, shall have clearly typed on the face page of each document, under the case number, the following:

ASSIGNED FOR ALL PURPOSES TO
DEPARTMENT 18

All parties are expected to know and comply with the Local Rules of this Court, which are available on the Court's website at: http://www.alameda.courts.ca.gov/Pages.aspx/Local-Rules\(1\)) and with the California Rules of Court, which are available at www.courtinfo.ca.gov.

Parties must meet and confer to discuss the effective use of mediation or other alternative dispute processes (ADR) prior to the Initial Case Management Conference. The court encourages parties to file a "Stipulation to Attend ADR and Delay Initial Case Management Conference for 90 Days". Plaintiff received that form in the ADR information package at the time the complaint was filed. The court's Web site also contains this form and other ADR information. If the parties do not stipulate to attend ADR, the parties must be prepared to discuss referral to ADR at the Initial Case Management Conference.

Counsel are expected to be familiar and comply with the Statement of Professionalism and Civility, Alameda County Bar Association www.acbanet.org (link at bottom of page). Email is the preferred method of communicating with court staff in Dept. 18, particularly for scheduling hearings. Telephone communications are possible, but use of email will greatly facilitate a prompt response to your inquiries. When a copy of a document must be transmitted to court staff, it should be hand-delivered to Dept. 18. PDFs should not be emailed to the Court without prior permission; as such attachments can disable the Court's email in-box. Further, the use of an email attachment is not a substitute for filing of pleadings or other documents. All email communications should be copied to all parties for whom an email address is available, so inclusion of available email addresses in the caption of all filed papers, as required by CRC 2.111(1) is critical.

Schedule for Department 18

4/20/18 LVB/MS/AB

The following scheduling information is subject to change at any time, without notice. Please contact the department at the phone number or email address noted above if you have questions. Anyone seeking to schedule a hearing must first "meet and confer" with counsel regarding proposed dates then contact Dept. 18 via email with copies to all counsel.

- Trials generally are held: Monday through Thursday from 8:30 AM through 1:30 PM. Cases may trail a trial in progress. A Readiness Hearing is held Fridays at 9:00 AM ten days before the trial date.
- Case Management Conferences are held: Mon/Thurs at 3:00 PM, and Fri at 9:00 AM. Timely filed and completed CMC Statements are required at least 15 days before the conference and may eliminate the need for a hearing. Please check on the RofA via DOMAINweb for the Tentative CMO.

- Law and Motion matters are heard: Tues/Wed at 3:00 PM. Email D-18 for reservations with case name, number, title, who you represent and dates for reservation. 1 courtesy copy of motion papers are to be submitted directly to D-18. Place reservation #, date, time and dept.on motion.
- Settlement Conferences are heard: As scheduled by the Judge. Court resources are limited, and counsel should consider other ADR alternatives. Conferences will be specially set when deemed appropriate.
- Ex Parte matters are heard: Mon/Thurs at 3:00 PM, Fri at 9:00 AM. The applicant must contact the clerk for a hearing date, provide CRC 3.1203(a) notice to all parties, must appear in person or by phone if allowed.
- Always check the website the day before the hearing for developments on your case. See link to above "List of documents" for more information on department. (1) Counsel should consider and recommend creative, efficient approaches to valuing and resolving their case (CRC 3.724). (2) Potential discovery and other problems should be anticipated and discussed. (3) No discovery motion shall be filed without prior serious efforts to resolve it. Those efforts must be well documented for any motion.

Law and Motion Procedures

To obtain a hearing date for a Law and Motion or ex parte matter, parties must contact the department as follows:

- Motion Reservations
Email: Dept.18@alameda.courts.ca.gov
Phone: 510-267-6934
- Ex Parte Matters
Email: Dept.18@alameda.courts.ca.gov
Phone: 510-267-6934

The Court requests that inquiries be made by e-mail to avoid disrupting courtroom proceedings.

Tentative Rulings

The court may issue tentative rulings in accordance with the Local Rules. Tentative rulings will become the Court's order unless contested in accordance with the Local Rules. Tentative rulings will be available at:

- Website: www.alameda.courts.ca.gov/domainweb, Calendar Information for Dept. 18
- Phone: 1-866-223-2244

ORDERS

1. Plaintiff must:
 - a. Serve all named defendants and file proofs of service on those defendants with the court within 60 days of the filing of the complaint (Cal. Rules of Court, 3.110(b)); and
 - b. Give notice of this conference to all other parties and file proof of service.
2. Defendant must respond as stated on the summons.
3. All parties who have appeared before the date of the conference must:
 - a. Meet and confer, in person or by telephone as required by Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.724;
 - b. File and serve a completed Case Management Statement on Form CM-110 at least 15 days before the Case Management Conference (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.725); and
 - c. Post jury fees as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 631.
4. If you do not follow the orders above, the court may issue an order to show cause why you should not be sanctioned under Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.30. Sanctions may include monetary sanctions, striking pleadings or dismissal of the action.
5. You are further ordered to appear in person or through your attorney of record at the Case Management Conference noticed above. You must be thoroughly familiar with the case and fully authorized to proceed. You may be able to appear at Case Management Conferences by telephone. Contact CourtCall, an independent vendor, at least three business days before the scheduled conference. Call 1-888-882-6878, or fax a service request to (888) 882-2946. The vendor charges for this service.
6. You may file Case Management Conference Statements by E-Delivery. Submit them directly to the E-Delivery Fax Number (510) 267-5732. No fee is charged for this service. For further information, go to www.alameda.courts.ca.gov/ff.
7. The judge may place a Tentative Case Management Order in your case's on-line register of actions before the conference. This order may establish a discovery schedule, set a trial date or refer the case to Alternate Dispute Resolution, such as mediation or arbitration. Check the website of each assigned department for procedures regarding tentative case management orders at www.alameda.courts.ca.gov/dc.

EXHIBIT 8

Superior Court of California, County of Alameda Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Packet

The person who files a civil lawsuit (plaintiff) must include the ADR Information Packet with the complaint when serving the defendant. Cross complainants must serve the ADR Information Packet on any new parties named to the action.

The Court strongly encourages the parties to use some form of ADR before proceeding to trial. You may choose ADR by:

- Indicating your preference on Case Management Form CM-110;
- Filing the Stipulation to ADR and Delay Initial Case Management Conference for 90 Days (a local form included with the information packet); or
- Agree to ADR at your Initial Case Management Conference.

Or visit the court's website at <http://www.alameda.courts.ca.gov/adr>

What Are The Advantages Of Using ADR?

- Faster – Litigation can take years to complete but ADR usually takes weeks or months.
- Cheaper – Parties can save on attorneys' fees and litigation costs.
- More control and flexibility – Parties choose the ADR process appropriate for their case.
- Cooperative and less stressful – In mediation, parties cooperate to find a mutually agreeable resolution.
- Preserve Relationships – A mediator can help you effectively communicate your interests and point of view to the other side. This is an important benefit when you want to preserve a relationship.

What Is The Disadvantage Of Using ADR?

- You may go to court anyway – If you cannot resolve your dispute using ADR, you may still have to spend time and money resolving your lawsuit through the courts.

What ADR Options Are Available?

- Mediation – A neutral person (mediator) helps the parties communicate, clarify facts, identify legal issues, explore settlement options, and agree on a solution that is acceptable to all sides.
 - Court Mediation Program: Mediators do not charge fees for the first two hours of mediation. If parties need more time, they must pay the mediator's regular fees.

Some mediators ask for a deposit before mediation starts which is subject to a refund for unused time.

- Private Mediation: This is mediation where the parties pay the mediator's regular fees and may choose a mediator outside the court's panel.
- Arbitration – A neutral person (arbitrator) hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial and the rules of evidence are often relaxed. Arbitration is effective when the parties want someone other than themselves to decide the outcome.
- Judicial Arbitration Program (non-binding): The judge can refer a case or the parties can agree to use judicial arbitration. The parties select an arbitrator from a list provided by the court. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, one will be assigned by the court. There is no fee for the arbitrator. The arbitrator must send the decision (award of the arbitrator) to the court. The parties have the right to reject the award and proceed to trial.
- Private Arbitration (binding and non-binding) occurs when parties involved in a dispute either agree or are contractually obligated. This option takes place outside of the courts and is normally binding meaning the arbitrator's decision is final.
